1 About this Documentation

The following information will help you make better use of the documentation.

- This documentation's target group and contents
- Which design elements are used?
- What terminology is used in the documentation?

1.1 Target Groups, Contents

This documentation is addressed to the end user.

This documentation describes working with a typical groupware installation and configuration. The installed version and the configuration of your groupware might differ from what is described here.

If this documentation contains descriptions of functions that are not available in your installation, please contact your administrator or host. As the groupware's software has a modularized structure consisting of individual applications, it is possible to purchase additional applications or functions through upgrades.

The contents of this documentation are also available in the on-line help.

1.2 Design Elements

In favor of better legibility the text content of this guide is illustrated using the following design elements:

Buttons

Buttons or functions that can be clicked are highlighted in bold.

Example:

Click on Compose new email.

Label

Labels for user interface elements like the names of windows or input fields are highlighted in italics.

Example:

The Compose new email page is displayed.

Key labels

Key labels are displayed in square brackets "[]". If several keys must be pressed, the plus sign "+" is added between the individual key labels.

Example:

Use [ctrl]+[c] to copy the content to the clipboard.

Links

Links in the text appear in blue.

Example:

Information can be found in 5.4: Sending E-Mails \(page 67\).

Explanatory text

Text that describes several functions or options is written in list form.

Example:

The following options exist:

- Send new E-Mails
- Reply to E-Mails
- Forward E-Mails

Step by step instructions

Instructions are shown as a numbered list. If the instruction only consists of one step or several alternative steps, numbering is not required. Instructions are always introduced with wording indicating the target of the instructions. Usually, at the end of the instructions the result is mentioned.

Example:

How to reply to an E-Mail:

1. Select an E-Mail in the sidebar.
2. Click on Reply in the display area next to the E-Mail header .
3. Enter the E-Mail text.
4. Click on Send in the command bar.

Result: The E-Mail is sent.

Tips for making the work much easier

The tips for making work easier refer to actions that are optional e.g., alternatives to an instruction. A tip is introduced with the word Tip:.

Example:

Tip: You can also add an attachment by dragging and dropping a document from a file browser or from the desktop to the E-Mail window.

Malfunction note

A malfunction note indicates actions that can not be executed in the current situation. A malfunction note helps to avoid handling errors.

A handling error is introduced with the word Note:.

Example:

Note: In order to add a signature, you need to have created one in the E-Mail settings.

Warning about loss of data or security risks

A data loss warning indicates an action that irrevocably deletes data as soon as the action is executed.

A security risk warning indicates an action that possibly endangers the security of your data.

A warning is introduced with the word Warning:.

Example:

Warning: Permanently deleted E-Mails messages are irrevocably lost. Prior to permanently deleting E-Mails, make sure you no longer need the E-Mail messages.

5.7.4 Use cases for E-Mail filters

You can create a condition by

- selecting an E-Mail part, e.g. "Subject";
- selecting a criterion, e.g. "Is exactly";
- entering an argument, e.g. "minutes".

In this case it would be verified whether the subject of an E-Mail exactly matches the argument's characters ("minutes"). You can control if the condition is met with the criterion and the character string. The differences between the single criteria will be explained in the examples below. In the examples, the subject is used for filtering E-Mails.

- Criterion: "contains"
The condition is met if the subject contains the characters in the argument.
Example: The argument is "minutes".
 The condition is met for the subject "minutes".
 The condition is also met for the subject "meeting minutes".
- Criterion: "is exactly"
The condition is met if the subject exactly matches the argument's character string.
Example: The argument is "minutes".
 The condition is met for the subject "minutes".
 The condition is not met for the subject "meeting minutes".
- Criterion: "Matches"
The condition is met if the subject exactly matches the characters in the argument. The character string can contain wildcards.
Example: The argument is "minutes*". The "*" character is a wildcard for any characters.
 The condition is met for the subject "minutes".
 The condition is not met for the subject "meeting minutes".
- Criterion: "Regex"
The condition is met if the subject contains the characters provided by the regular expression in the argument. Regular expressions allow complex requests. More information can be found on respective sites on the Web. The following, very simple regular expression should give an insight to the topic.
Example: The argument is "organi(z|s)ation". The expression "(z|s)" stands for either the "z" or the "s" character.
 The condition is met for the subject "minutes".
 The condition is also met for the subject "organisation".
 The condition is not met for the subject "Organic".

9.8 Accessing Files with WebDAV

With WebDAV you can access the Drive app files in the same way as when accessing local files on your disk. Compared with the access from the Groupware GUI, WebDAV has advantages and disadvantages:

- The advantage is the quick and direct access with a file browser e.g. the Windows Explorer. You need not be logged in to the Groupware GUI.
- The disadvantage is that you can only see the current document version. Neither the version history nor additional information, like comments, are displayed.

Warning: If you delete a file with WebDAV, all versions will be lost, not only the current version.

Note: To create objects with WebDAV in a public or shared folder, you need to have at least the following permissions for the respective folder: create objects, edit own objects. To also read own objects, you additionally need this permission: read own objects. Information on permissions can be found in 10.2.8: Which permissions can be used? \(page 247\).

Prior to accessing the Drive app files with a file browser, e.g. the Windows Explorer, you have to set up the WebDAV access. Depending on the system software the procedure differs:

- Setting up WebDAV under Linux
- Setting up WebDAV under Windows 7

9.8.1 Setting up WebDAV under Linux

How to set up WebDAV access under Linux:

1. Open the KDE Konqueror or a similar browser.
2. Enter the following address in the address bar:
webdav://<address>/servlet/webdav.infostore
Replace the <address> with the Groupware Server's ip address or url.
3. Enter your username and password for accessing the Groupware Server.

Result: The Drive app files are displayed in the browser.

9.8.2 Setting up WebDAV under Windows 7

How to set up WebDAV access under Windows 7:

Prerequisite: The registry key BasicAuthLevel has to be set to 2 in the Windows registry database. Further information can be found in the Microsoft articles <http://support.microsoft.com/kb/928692> and <https://support.microsoft.com/kb/841215>.

Note: Depending on the Windows 7 setup, there can be delays when accessing WebDAV folders. If this is the case, follow the instructions in this article: <http://support.microsoft.com/kb/2445570>.

1. In the navigation area of the Windows Explorer select the entry Computer.
2. In the icon bar click on Connect drive. The Connect drive window opens.
3. Click on Connect to a Web site that you can use to store your documents. The Add network address window opens. Click on Next.
4. Select Select custom network address. Click on Next.
5. In the Add network path dialog window enter the following address:
https://<address>/servlet/webdav.infostore
where <address> needs to be replaced by the Groupware server's ip address or url.
Click on Next.
6. Enter your username and password for accessing the Groupware Server. Click on OK.
7. On the next page you can assign a name to the network address. Click on Next.
8. Click on Finish.

Result: Below Computer you can access your Drive app files.

9.9 Adding storage accounts

If you use third party cloud storages like Google Drive, Dropbox, Box or OneDrive, you can access the data of those accounts from within the groupware by adding those accounts as storage accounts.

How to add a storage account:

1. Click on Add storage account in the folder tree. The Add storage account window opens.
2. Click an icon. The further procedure depends on the cloud storage account provider.
 - If the provider asks for credentials, enter your credentials for the cloud storage account.
 - If the provider asks you for the permission to access the data, grant this permission.

An entry for the storage account appears in the folder tree. The entry contains this account's folders. Open one of those folders to do the following:

- You can use the folder tree to access the your storage account contents.
Note: Depending on the storage account's functionality, working with versions might not be supported.
- Depending on the content, you can use the menu bar functions, e.g. to view pictures or to copy data.

10.1.2 What is the purpose of permissions?

Permissions define what an internal user or external partner is allowed to do with a particular folder and its contents. The following information about folders can also be applied to address books and calendars.

- As internal user you have preset permissions for existing folders.
When creating a new folder, you will be granted the preset permissions.
- When inviting other persons to a shared item, you grant them particular permissions.

You have the following permissions for folders that already exist:

- You are the owner of your personal folders.
The owner has the same permissions as an administrator. The owner has all permissions for this folder. The owner can grant other users permissions to the folder.
- You are allowed to create folders and objects in public folders.
- You are allowed to view folders and read objects in the Global Address book.

Depending on where you create a new folder, particular rights are assigned to you.

- If you create a new folder in a personal folder:
 - You are the owner.
 - In the E-Mail app and the Drive app, other users inherit their permissions for the parent folder. In the other apps, other users do not inherit permissions.
- If you create a new folder in the Public files folder:
 - You are the owner.
 - Other users will get no rights. You have to set the permissions for the new folder. If you then create new subfolders in this folder, the permissions for this folder are inherited by the new subfolders.
- If you create a new folder in the shared folder of another user:
 - The user who shared the folder is the administrator of the new folder.
 - You are the author of the new folder.
An author is allowed to change or delete existing objects, to create and edit new objects, and to create subfolders.
 - Other users will get the same rights as for the parent folder.

Note: You need to have the permission to create objects in the shared folder.

12 Encrypting Data

Guard is a groupware security component that allows to encrypt E-Mails and files.

- Encrypt your E-Mail communication with other users or external partners.
- Encrypt your files. Share the encrypted data with other users.
- Use the security options to define the encryption level.
- The encrypted data are password-protected. Depending on the configuration, you can reset your password if forgotten.

Learn how to work with the Guard application.

- apply basic settings
- encrypt E-Mail communications
- encrypt files
- encrypt Office documents
- sign out from Guard
- apply security settings

Information on further security-related topics can be found in Security \(p. 255\).

12.1 Setting up Guard

Prior to be able to use Guard, you have to apply some basic settings.

- First of all you have to enter a Guard security password that is used to encrypt data and to access encrypted data.
- Enter a secondary E-Mail address that is used if you forget your Guard security password. In this case, use the function for resetting the Guard security password. A new password will then be sent to you. For security reasons, it is highly recommended to enter a secondary E-Mail address for this purpose. Otherwise the new password is sent to your primary E-Mail account.

There are two options for making the basic settings:

- Define the basic settings while initially using an encryption function.
- Define the basic settings in the groupware settings before using the encryption function.

How to define the basic settings when initially using an encryption function:

1. Enable the encryption function when composing an E-Mail, encrypting a file or uploading a new file by clicking on the Encrypt icon  next to the folder name in the folder tree.
2. You consecutively will be asked to enter a Guard security password and a secondary E-Mail address. Enter the data.

How to define the basic settings before initially using an encryption:

1. Click the System menu icon  on the right side of the menu bar. Click the Settings menu item.
2. Select Security in the sidebar. Click on Guard Security.
When initially opening the Guard security settings, the Guard Create Security Keys window opens.
3. In the Password field, enter the password that you want to use for encrypting your data.
Confirm the password in the Verify field by entering it again.
4. In the Enter new secondary email field, enter the E-Mail address that is used for receiving a temporary password for resetting your Guard security password.
5. Click on OK.

12.2 Encrypting E-Mail Conversations

The following options exist:

- Reading encrypted E-Mails
- Sending encrypted E-Mails
- How can external recipients read an encrypted E-Mail?

12.2.1 Reading encrypted E-Mails

To be able to read an encrypted E-Mail, the Guard security password is required.

How to read an encrypted E-Mail:

1. Select an E-Mail with the Encrypted icon . In the detail view, the notification Secure E-Mail, enter your Guard security password. is displayed.
Note: If, when having used guard the last time, you set that Guard should remember the security password, the E-Mail will be displayed immediately.
2. Enter the Guard security password.
You can define how long the security password should be remembered by Guard. To do so, enable Keep me logged into Guard. Select a time range from the list.
In the Guard security settings, you can define a default value for the time range.
3. Click on OK. The content is shown in plain text.
If the E-Mail includes attachments, functions for using the attachments' decrypted or encrypted versions are displayed.

Also see

12.2.2 Sending encrypted E-Mails

The following options exist:

- Sending an encrypted E-Mail. Only you and the recipients can read the E-Mail content.
- Sending an E-Mail with a signature. The signature ensures that the recipient is able to recognize whether the E-Mail content has been changed on the transport.
- Sending an encrypted E-Mail with a signature.

How to send an encrypted E-Mail:

1. Compose an E-Mail in the E-Mail app as usual.

In the Compose page, click the Encrypt icon  on the upper right side.

You can also click on Security below the subject. Depending on the configuration of the Guard security settings, the menu contains different entries.

- If Show advanced settings is disabled, click on Secure.
- If Show advanced settings is enabled, click on encrypt.

Icons next to the recipients indicate whether the message can be encrypted for this recipient. If hovering over an icon, a description will be displayed.

2. In order to additionally sign the E-Mail, click on Security. Enable Sign.
3. If Show advanced settings is enabled in the Guard security settings, you can use further options. To do so, click on Security. You can activate the following options.
 - Per default, encrypted E-Mails are sent in PGP Mime format. Some older clients only support PGP Inline. If the recipient uses such a client, enable PGP Inline. If you use PGP Inline, you can not send E-Mails in html format.
 - To enable The E-Mail recipient to send an encrypted reply, the recipient needs to have your public key. You can send your public key as attachment. To do so, enable Attach my key.
4. Click on Send encrypted.

When sending to new recipients, a window is displayed that allows to send [notes for opening the encrypted E-Mail \[271\]](#) to the recipients.

Also see

How can external recipients read an encrypted E-Mail? \(p. 271\)

12.2.3 How can external recipients read an encrypted E-Mail?

You can also send encrypted E-Mails to external recipients who are no groupware users. When adding an external recipient, Guard checks whether a public key is available for this E-Mail address. Depending on the result, Guard uses different procedures for sending the encrypted E-Mail.

- If there is a public key for the recipient:
 - The message is sent encrypted with this key. The recipient can read the message with his/her private key.
- If there is no public key for the recipient:
 - If the external user already has a guest account, he/she receives an E-Mail with the link to the login page of his/her guest account. When having logged in, he/she can read the encrypted E-Mail on the guest page. He/she can send an encrypted reply from this page.
 - If there is no guest account, a guest account will be created. The external recipient receives an E-Mail with a link to a guest page and an automatically created password. The user logs in to the guest page. Then he/she can create an own password.
Depending on the configuration, the automatically created password and the link to the guest page are sent in separate E-Mails.
 - Depending on the groupware configuration, guest account E-Mails are deleted after a specific number of days.

The external recipient can send an encrypted reply to the encrypted E-Mail. It is not possible to add additional recipients though.

How to delete a key in the Your Keys window:

Warning: If you delete a private key, you can no longer decrypt objects that have been encrypted with this key. If you are unsure, you should not delete the key but revoke it. A revoked key can no longer be used for encryption. But you can still decrypt objects that have been encrypted with this key.

1. Click the Delete icon  next to a key. The Delete Private Key window opens.
2. You have the following options:
 - To revoke a private key, click on Revoke.

- If you send an E-Mail to recipients who should not see the names of the other recipients, enter the recipients in the input field Bcc.

I regularly send E-Mails with identical or similar content. How can I speed up this process?

Make use of the ability to save E-Mails as drafts. Information can be found in Working with E-Mail drafts \(page 84\).

Can I e.g. access E-Mails sent to my Google Mail account?

For many E-Mail service providers you can set up external E-Mail accounts, e.g. for Google Mail. You only need your account data for the respective provider. As soon as you set up the external E-Mail account you have access to the E-Mails from within the folder tree. Information can be found in Adding E-Mail Accounts \(page 99\).

How can I automatically forward E-Mails to my replacement?

Enable the function Auto Forward in the settings. Information can be found in Automatically forwarding E-Mails \(page 76\).

How to keep the overview over my E-Mail accounts inboxes?

Use Unified Mail to display the inboxes of multiple E-Mail accounts in a central folder. Information can be found in Using Unified Mail \(page 90\).

Questions about tasks, calendars, and appointments

When should I use a task and when should I use an appointment?

Whether it is best to use an appointment or a task can be determined based on the following criteria:

- An appointment takes place at a defined point in time. If you need to execute an action at a defined point in time, create an appointment for this action.
- A task has a due date and sometimes a priority. If you are flexible regarding the time schedule of an action and only have to respect the due date, enter a task for this action.

How can I hide my appointments' or tasks' subject in shared folders?

When creating appointments or tasks in public or shared folders, enable the Private checkbox. Other persons can see the appointment or task but not the subject or the description.

How can I create a task from an E-Mail?

Use the Reminder function in the display area of the E-Mail app. Information can be found in Creating E-Mail reminders \(page 85\).

How can I organize another person's appointments as a representative?

Ask the other person to share a calendar folder with write permissions. Then enter this person's appointments in the shared folder. The other person will be displayed as the organizer of the appointments.

Questions about data organization and team work

How can I make certain contacts available to my external partners?

You can also give external partners access to your groupware address books' contacts or to your social networks' contacts like. To do this proceed as follows:

1. Add contacts from your social networks to an address book.
2. Create a new contacts folder. Copy all contacts that you want to share from your address books to this contact's folder.
3. Share this contact folder. Information can be found in Sharing \(page 237\).
